

Kia ora tātou,

We're excited to announce our intended partnership with Kōtuiti to deliver online Te Ao Māori Education at the foundational level.

This programme is fully funded for Pinnacle practices.

Why we're doing this: Ehara i te mea, he kotahi tangata nāna i whakaara te pō.

We are working collectively towards enriching our universal practices and processes and we are committed to improve equity of health and wellbeing, in accordance with Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

This learning drives us further to best practice in alignment with our Pakiaka: (Our roots)

- Whakawhanaungatanga – Connection
- Akoranga – Learning
- Mahi tahi – Collaboration
- Kawa whakaruruhau – Cultural Responsiveness
- Kaitiakitanga – Stewardship
- Hauora – Health & Wellbeing

We know there's strong interest across our district to grow, and deepen cultural understanding and we are excited to provide this highly regarded learning to you all. Over 90% of learners have acknowledged significantly improved employee satisfaction from this learning.

"This course is superb. I have done a fair bit of 'education' in my time including 5 and a bit years at Uni and a whole heap of professional training put together by a huge array of organisations in this country and others and in my humble opinion your course is one of the very best things I've ever done."– Jason Wooley (Meridian)"
