FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

FOR GENERAL PRACTICES

How is Hauora Taiwhenua connected to the International Recruitment Centre (IRC)?	What services will Hauora Taiwhenua provide?
Hauora Taiwhenua has been contracted to facilitate applications from international GPs that are considering a move to New Zealand through the IRC campaign.	NZLocums and NZMedJobs, a division of Hauora Taiwhenua, will facilitate placement of GP applicants into general practice, both urban and rural.
Does Hauora Taiwhenua have an international recruitment campaign?	Is there a cost to working with Hauora Taiwhenua?
Yes, Hauora Taiwhenua is also running an international recruitment campaign at the same time as Te Whatu Ora. Te Whatu Ora and Hauora Taiwhenua have consulted closely together to ensure that the two campaigns are not running in the same places at the same time, so that they don't compete against each other for the same outcome. The two campaign landing pages are below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Te Whatu Ora • Hauora Taiwhenua Candidates will be supported through the recruitment process by Hauora Taiwhenua's recruitment division, NZLocums and NZMedJobs for both campaigns.	Through this campaign, the cost of the following services are covered: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Onboarding through initial screening interviews • Job-matching to current vacancies • Medical registration process guidance and support • Immigration support and guidance • Support on arrival in New Zealand, including a comprehensive orientation (subject to terms and conditions) For more detail on costs please contact us at: enquiries@htrhn.org.nz
How do I find out about job vacancies in New Zealand?	Can we use the services of the IRC's Licensed Immigration Advisors?
Visit NZLocums vacancies page for jobs in New Zealand here and at Make a Difference Somewhere Different here.	This service is only available to those applicants who intend to be placed in a Te Whatu Ora role.

I am looking for staff. Can I contact the International Recruitment Centre to find staff?	I am a General Practice in New Zealand. Can I place a vacancy on the Make a Difference Somewhere Different vacancy page?
The immediate goal of the Centre is to attract internationally trained migrant and New Zealand trained ex-pat general practitioners. The Centre does not advertise roles on behalf of practices, agencies or organisations. The Centre does not act as a broker or recruitment agency. If you wish to advertise a vacancy, you may be able to on the Kiwi Health Jobs site.	Te Whatu Ora’s Make a Difference Somewhere Different campaign is an attraction and recruitment campaign page. To advertise a vacancy, contact Kiwi Health Jobs or contact Hauora Taiwhenua to list a vacancy on our website.
We are a Te Whatu Ora district-run practice/PHO, can we access the services of the Hauora Taiwhenua to fill GP vacancies with international doctors?	When the International Recruitment Centre receives an expression of interest, how will practices get to know about them?
Yes, please contact us on enquiries@htrhn.org.nz – we will aim to help you fill any open roles with an international applicant from the Make a Difference Somewhere Different campaign. If there isn’t a suitable candidate, Hauora Taiwhenua has other databases of domestic and international GPs who may be suitable.	All enquiries through this campaign go directly to Hauora Taiwhenua to triage and process. If you’re a New Zealand Accredited Employer who has contacted Hauora Taiwhenua asking for assistance to fill an open vacancy, they will be contacted if there is a suitable applicant. Find out more about how to become an accredited employer on the Te Whatu Ora website.
How do I apply for the relocation funding advertised on Te Whatu Ora’s website?	What is provided in the IRC’s settlement services package?
Relocation funding is only available to applicants who are placed into roles at Te Whatu Ora.	The IRC supports newly-arrived health professionals who start a new role with Te Whatu Ora. Information includes support with settling into life in Aotearoa New Zealand. The level of support varies district by district.
