

Graduate Nursing Job Advertisement Template

Here's a job advertisement template for a graduate registered nurse (RN) role in New Zealand, tailored to attract graduate with a focus on training, mentorship, and career development.

Job Title: Graduate Registered Nurse

Location: [City/Region], New Zealand

Employer: [Healthcare Organisation Name]

About Us

[Healthcare Organisation Name] – describe your organisation and what makes you attractive to a graduate nurse.

About the Graduate Nursing Role

Describe the day-in-the-life of a graduate nurse within your organisation. Outline the practice in which they will work, describe the approach to their support, development and preceptorship.

Example

We are excited to welcome a dedicated and compassionate Graduate Registered Nurse to our team. This role is designed for recent nursing graduates looking to start their career with hands-on training, continuous support, and development opportunities in a dynamic healthcare environment.

Start Date: [Specify, if known]

Key Responsibilities

- Patient Care: [describe]
 - Collaboration: [describe]
 - Learning and Development: [describe]
 - Assessment and Documentation: [describe]
-

What We Offer

- Comprehensive Orientation: [describe]

- Mentorship Program: [describe]
- Career Development: [describe]
- Supportive Work Environment: [describe]

Requirements

- Qualification: Bachelor's degree in nursing from a recognised institution.
- Registration: Current or pending registration with the New Zealand Nursing Council.
- Skills: Strong communication, empathy, and teamwork skills.
- Eligibility: Must be legally entitled to work in New Zealand.

Application Process

Example

If you're a recent nursing graduate passionate about delivering quality healthcare and eager to learn and grow with a supportive team, we'd love to hear from you!

To Apply: Submit your resume and any supporting documents on [Career site URL or outline an Email].

Application Deadline: [Specify date]
