

eReferral – NZ Pelvic Mesh Complications

The Pelvic Mesh Complications is a national service for females (born with biologically female pelvic organs) who may have been harmed by mesh implanted for the treatment of urinary stress incontinence or pelvic organ prolapse.

What does this mean for me as a Referrer?

Pelvic Mesh service is now available on eReferrals. This service went LIVE on 26th of April 2023.

Key words for search: Pel, Pelvic, Mesh

Referral To
Organisation Name	Department	Specialty
Search: <input type="text" value="pel"/>		DHB: <input type="text" value="Waikato"/>
New Zealand	Urology	Pelvic Mesh Complications

Pelvic Mesh eReferral eligibility criteria ↗

The Service Detail displays information on Primary Options, links to resources and is a guide for information to be included in the referral.

Pelvic Mesh Complications
The Female Pelvic Mesh Service (FPMS) is a national service for females (born with biologically female pelvic organs) who may have been harmed by mesh implanted for the treatment of urinary stress incontinence or pelvic organ prolapse. New Zealand Female Pelvic Mesh Service Patient Information (PDF link coming soon) There are two hubs. It is the female's choice which hub they would like to be directed to, if they have no preference, please refer to them as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Northern Hub – Auckland (covers Taupo and north or by patient preference)<ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ 021-906-245, available Monday to Thursday 9 am to 3.45 pm• Southern Hub – Christchurch (covers all areas south of Taupo or by patient preference)<ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ to be advised Please discuss and choose the form for the hub the female has chosen. All access and care will be identical regardless of the hub chosen.
Resources and Links HealthPathways - Pelvic Mesh Complications

Any feedback on eReferral please contact Nestor Tio: eReferrals@healthshare.co.nz